

Healthy, equal relationships

Tips for Boys

What person do you want to be?

Challenge the gender stereotypes around you.

What kind of boyfriend do you want to be?

Show respect and you'll get respect.

Communicate. Share your thoughts and listen.

Relationships have ups and downs,

but ... things can be worked out without abuse.

Do your thing. You need your own space and interests.

It's no joke! Speak up if you notice someone disrespecting girls.

Be aware. Know about the warning signs of abuse.

Be a role model. Set a positive example for younger boys.

Be a leader. Start discussing healthy, equal relationships with your friends and family. Make a difference!

Play RePlay at www.metrac.org

